

Homework 17/11/2017

This week's homework is to spend time planning and preparing what you need for your gingerbread house competition entry. Remember – the theme the class chose was 'Spooky houses'!

I have attached some pictures to help you get started.

Use a page in your homework book to draw what you would like your gingerbread house to look like. Remember to label the parts and ingredients that you will need!

