Due in Wednesday 3rd October 2018

Spelling test on Friday 5th October 2018

Maths - Mrs Lucky!

Mrs Lucky has played the National Lottery for the last 4 years. There's a reason she is called Mrs Lucky. She has won the lottery once each year. Her family are also lucky as she always shares with them.

Her wins have been:

£4,382,096.26

£2,048,836.16

£4,419,349.48

£5,641,494.55

She keeps the millions for herself. Her goldfish gets the pence. Her grandchildren get the thousands. Her cousins get the hundreds. Her husband gets the hundred thousands. Her children get the ten thousands. Her siblings get the tens of pounds and her next dog gets the pounds left over. How much money do they each get?

Spellings

initial facial potential

special partial commercial essential beneficial

confidential

artificial

To help learn the spelling of words ending in either – cial or – tial:

There's a rule about which one to use but like all rules there are exceptions.

- What's the letter before these -cial words: social, special, beneficial?
- What's the letter before these -tial words: essential, substantial, partial?

Rule:

- Use -cial after a vowel, like after the vowel 'o' in social, 'e' in special, 'i' in beneficial
- Use -tial after a consonant, especially, after 'n' in substantial, essential, and 'r' in partial

Exceptions: initial, financial, commercial, provincial

Reading

Make sure you record at least 3 reading comments in your reading record this week. You could:

- Comment on what you have enjoyed about a particular book or chapter.
- Explain how the plot is developing.
- Record any tricky words that you have come across.
- Pick out any adjectives, verbs or adverbs that you particularly like.
