

St John's Community Primary School and Nursery

Weekly Newsletter 8th February 2019

Dear Parents,

What a busy week in school! This week on Thursday we were inspected by Julie Winyard, an HMI inspector. This was a regular inspection as part of the Ofsted cycle. The outcome of the Inspection will be shared with parents and staff as soon as possible; hopefully next week. Thank you to all parents that completed the survey or gave feedback directly to the Inspector and a massive thank you to the pupils that were interviewed on the day or who talked about their reading. I would personally like to thank the staff team that work so hard, not only yesterday but everyday.

We have held reading cafes this week for every class and they have been a huge success. They have been very well attended and the feedback received has been very positive—we have taken on board the 'coffee and cake' comment and Year 5 and 6 did have that today! I think it was a lovely way for families to see how hard children work in school and the very high expectations regarding their language knowledge and use. Thank you to all for supporting this event.

Regards

Mrs Quinn
