St John's Community Primary School and Nursery

Weekly Newsletter 26th February 2016

Dear Parents,

Congratulations to our brave and adventurous Year 4 pupils who have just returned from their two night residential. They were wonderfully behaved, independent and collaborative during their trip and were a credit to the school. Well done each and everyone of you! A massive thank you also to the staff that accompanied them to Horstead who had a few sleepless nights and very busy days, a well deserved rest this weekend!

A very big well done to the football team that won 3-1 this week. They also looked fabulous in their new Kits very kindly sponsored by DANCO.

If you have a child in Reception or Year 1, it would be very helpful if your child could have some spare clothes in a bag on their peg please. We are often very short of extra kit and if children get wet or muddy it is becoming a struggle to find them a change of clothes, if they have an extra pair of trousers and socks on the peg it will help enormously.

Regards

Mrs Quinn
